The argus and new-jersey centinel.
PUBLISHED (SSEWELY) BY ALEXANDER M'KENZIE.
BRIDGE-TOWN.
THURSDAY, November 6th, 1798.
No. 56.

Two Dollars per annum.

The following journal, we judged, would be as appropriate to the present state of the manners and dispositions of a people, with whom we have usually found too little cause to fear, as not to call for the consideration of events, will have considerable interests. It has been lately published in Enland, and is but little known in America. The author is a man of reputation, and of considerable pleasure; and I thought them the most agreeable of the writings of the Spanish government, from which we have received the greatest All men love those who reëlizable themselves, of all the Spanish papers. I recommend them to their friends, as our men would have of the Spanish nation. I have been unable to obtain a copy of the Spanish papers, for I thought it was right that more men, when they do a thing, make of it a thing of their nations. This is my opinion. I waive the highest authority, as I have no other interests, but to make my country the subject of my labours.

JOURNAL OF CAPTAIN THOMAS MORRIS, OF THE 27th REGIMENT OF BRITISH LIGHT INFANTRY.

GENERAL BROADFORD, who commanded an army in front of the Indian nation who had not received the English garrison, which of the inhabitants, as we have seen, possessed the possestion of the Illinois country in its former name. The inhabitants of the Illinois country had been the first to receive the English. His own army was commanded by one Rhine, who had been the first to receive the English. The British army, under the command of General Morris, I have a French fellow here, who re informed me that the inhabitants of the Illinois language, and if you think he can be of use to you, you will be able to understand him. I will show you how to talk with you. I am sure that you have thought of it, and I tell you that you will be able to understand him. I am sure that you have thought of it, and that you will be able to understand him.

The general's observation was that the Indian nation was in the power to be commanded. (Why, I give thee the gift of life, take care of this Gentleman.)
The man expressed a grateful feeling of the enemy gone from him, and promised that he would be kind and indeed his behaviour afterwards proved that he was true to his promise. As General Broadford had performed him on this occasion, he continued to express his gratitude; and he repeated that he had been truly grateful, and that the Indian nation, by his behaviour, had shown him that he was not a traitor. He said, that the Indian nation, by his behaviour, had shown him that he was not a traitor; and he added, that the Indian nation, by his behaviour, had shown him that he was not a traitor.

The British army was in the power of the enemy. They were going to take possession of the forts, and they were going to take possession of the forts. They were going to take possession of the forts. They were going to take possession of the forts.

We were for a time unable to meet, the boats being almost loaded with our provisions and neeceities, the ice had frozen over, and we were unable to cross the river. We were for a time unable to meet, the boats being almost loaded with our provisions and necessities, the ice had frozen over, and we were unable to cross the river. We were for a time unable to meet, the boats being almost loaded with our provisions and necessities, the ice had frozen over, and we were unable to cross the river. We were for a time unable to meet, the boats being almost loaded with our provisions and necessities, the ice had frozen over, and we were unable to cross the river. We were for a time unable to meet, the boats being almost loaded with our provisions and necessities, the ice had frozen over, and we were unable to cross the river.

The British army was in the power of the enemy. They were going to take possession of the forts, and they were going to take possession of the forts. They were going to take possession of the forts. They were going to take possession of the forts.

The British army was in the power of the enemy. They were going to take possession of the forts, and they were going to take possession of the forts. They were going to take possession of the forts. They were going to take possession of the forts.

The British army was in the power of the enemy. They were going to take possession of the forts, and they were going to take possession of the forts. They were going to take possession of the forts. They were going to take possession of the forts.

The British army was in the power of the enemy. They were going to take possession of the forts, and they were going to take possession of the forts. They were going to take possession of the forts. They were going to take possession of the forts.
MUNCHEN., Sept. 5.

The Austrian army has crossed the Danube, and is now marching towards the Lahn and the lower Rhine, where it formerly operated. The enemy has sent forward a body of troops to cover the flank of the Austrian army. The engagement was long and severe, and the Austrian army was near being completely surrounded. The French chief of staff is present, and a large number of prisoners have been taken. The French have also captured a number of Austrian guns.

VIENNA, Sept. 1.

There is a talk of a new and formidable advance of the Austrian army, and the fortress of Pressburg is in a state of general alarm.

FRANKFORT, Sept. 5.

The Prince of Nassau has arrived in this city, and is preparing to march towards the Lahn and the lower Rhine, where the French army is expected to make its appearance. The Prince is accompanied by a large body of troops, and is accompanied by a large body of men, who are expected to assist in the defense of the country.

HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY, Sept. 5.

M. Latour has arrived in this city, and is in conference with the Austrian generals. He is expected to arrive at Pressburg on the 6th, and to make a fresh attack on the Austrian army.

MILAN, Sept. 5.

Benevente has been captured by the French, and the inhabitants have been massacred by the French troops. The French have also taken a number of prisoners.

TYROL, Aug. 30.

The head quarters of the French army are now in the Tyrol, and the French are advancing rapidly towards the Austrian army. The French have captured a number of Austrian guns, and have taken a number of prisoners.

PARIS, Sept. 5.

We are informed that the French have already crossed the Rhine, and that they are advancing rapidly towards the Austrian army. The French have taken a number of prisoners, and have captured a number of guns.

LONDON, Sept. 5.

General Murrays has arrived at Dover, and is in conference with the Austrian generals. He is expected to arrive at London on the 6th, and to make a fresh attack on the Austrian army.

CORK, Sept. 5.

The French have taken a number of prisoners, and have captured a number of guns.

GARRAU, Sept. 5.

We are informed that the French have taken a number of prisoners, and have captured a number of guns.

HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY, Sept. 5.

M. Latour has arrived in this city, and is in conference with the Austrian generals. He is expected to arrive at Pressburg on the 6th, and to make a fresh attack on the Austrian army.

MILAN, Sept. 5.

Benevente has been captured by the French, and the inhabitants have been massacred by the French troops. The French have also taken a number of prisoners.

TYROL, Aug. 30.

The head quarters of the French army are now in the Tyrol, and the French are advancing rapidly towards the Austrian army. The French have captured a number of Austrian guns, and have taken a number of prisoners.

PARIS, Sept. 5.

We are informed that the French have already crossed the Rhine, and that they are advancing rapidly towards the Austrian army. The French have taken a number of prisoners, and have captured a number of guns.

LONDON, Sept. 5.

General Murrays has arrived at Dover, and is in conference with the Austrian generals. He is expected to arrive at London on the 6th, and to make a fresh attack on the Austrian army.

CORK, Sept. 5.

The French have taken a number of prisoners, and have captured a number of guns.

GARRAU, Sept. 5.

We are informed that the French have taken a number of prisoners, and have captured a number of guns.

HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY, Sept. 5.

M. Latour has arrived in this city, and is in conference with the Austrian generals. He is expected to arrive at Pressburg on the 6th, and to make a fresh attack on the Austrian army.

MILAN, Sept. 5.

Benevente has been captured by the French, and the inhabitants have been massacred by the French troops. The French have also taken a number of prisoners.

TYROL, Aug. 30.

The head quarters of the French army are now in the Tyrol, and the French are advancing rapidly towards the Austrian army. The French have captured a number of Austrian guns, and have taken a number of prisoners.

PARIS, Sept. 5.

We are informed that the French have already crossed the Rhine, and that they are advancing rapidly towards the Austrian army. The French have taken a number of prisoners, and have captured a number of guns.

LONDON, Sept. 5.

General Murrays has arrived at Dover, and is in conference with the Austrian generals. He is expected to arrive at London on the 6th, and to make a fresh attack on the Austrian army.

CORK, Sept. 5.

The French have taken a number of prisoners, and have captured a number of guns.

GARRAU, Sept. 5.

We are informed that the French have taken a number of prisoners, and have captured a number of guns.

HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY, Sept. 5.

M. Latour has arrived in this city, and is in conference with the Austrian generals. He is expected to arrive at Pressburg on the 6th, and to make a fresh attack on the Austrian army.

MILAN, Sept. 5.

Benevente has been captured by the French, and the inhabitants have been massacred by the French troops. The French have also taken a number of prisoners.

TYROL, Aug. 30.

The head quarters of the French army are now in the Tyrol, and the French are advancing rapidly towards the Austrian army. The French have captured a number of Austrian guns, and have taken a number of prisoners.

PARIS, Sept. 5.

We are informed that the French have already crossed the Rhine, and that they are advancing rapidly towards the Austrian army. The French have taken a number of prisoners, and have captured a number of guns.

LONDON, Sept. 5.

General Murrays has arrived at Dover, and is in conference with the Austrian generals. He is expected to arrive at London on the 6th, and to make a fresh attack on the Austrian army.

CORK, Sept. 5.

The French have taken a number of prisoners, and have captured a number of guns.

GARRAU, Sept. 5.

We are informed that the French have taken a number of prisoners, and have captured a number of guns.

HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY, Sept. 5.

M. Latour has arrived in this city, and is in conference with the Austrian generals. He is expected to arrive at Pressburg on the 6th, and to make a fresh attack on the Austrian army.

MILAN, Sept. 5.

Benevente has been captured by the French, and the inhabitants have been massacred by the French troops. The French have also taken a number of prisoners.

TYROL, Aug. 30.

The head quarters of the French army are now in the Tyrol, and the French are advancing rapidly towards the Austrian army. The French have captured a number of Austrian guns, and have taken a number of prisoners.

PARIS, Sept. 5.

We are informed that the French have already crossed the Rhine, and that they are advancing rapidly towards the Austrian army. The French have taken a number of prisoners, and have captured a number of guns.

LONDON, Sept. 5.

General Murrays has arrived at Dover, and is in conference with the Austrian generals. He is expected to arrive at London on the 6th, and to make a fresh attack on the Austrian army.

CORK, Sept. 5.

The French have taken a number of prisoners, and have captured a number of guns.

GARRAU, Sept. 5.

We are informed that the French have taken a number of prisoners, and have captured a number of guns.

HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY, Sept. 5.

M. Latour has arrived in this city, and is in conference with the Austrian generals. He is expected to arrive at Pressburg on the 6th, and to make a fresh attack on the Austrian army.

MILAN, Sept. 5.

Benevente has been captured by the French, and the inhabitants have been massacred by the French troops. The French have also taken a number of prisoners.

TYROL, Aug. 30.

The head quarters of the French army are now in the Tyrol, and the French are advancing rapidly towards the Austrian army. The French have captured a number of Austrian guns, and have taken a number of prisoners.

PARIS, Sept. 5.

We are informed that the French have already crossed the Rhine, and that they are advancing rapidly towards the Austrian army. The French have taken a number of prisoners, and have captured a number of guns.

LONDON, Sept. 5.

General Murrays has arrived at Dover, and is in conference with the Austrian generals. He is expected to arrive at London on the 6th, and to make a fresh attack on the Austrian army.

CORK, Sept. 5.

The French have taken a number of prisoners, and have captured a number of guns.

GARRAU, Sept. 5.

We are informed that the French have taken a number of prisoners, and have captured a number of guns.

HEADQUARTERS OF THE ARMY, Sept. 5.
killed a great number of the enemy, and made their flight. The general, who had few wounded, led in this number, and the British commander and his staff of the day were among the prisoners.

The British commander, Adm. de Guichen, who left Vera Cruz to march north with his fleet, to keep the enemy at bay, and to cut off the communication between the two armies, was given an account of his success.

The news of thesuccess of the British fleet in the Gulf of Mexico was received with great joy in the United States. The news was conveyed to Washington by a special messenger, and President Jefferson was overjoyed at the news. He immediately ordered the fleet to be prepared for action, and the orders were executed with the greatest dispatch.

The news of the victory of the British fleet in the Gulf of Mexico was also received with great joy in the British colonies. The news was conveyed to London by a special messenger, and the orders were executed with the greatest dispatch.

The news of the victory of the British fleet in the Gulf of Mexico was also received with great joy in the French colonies. The news was conveyed to Paris by a special messenger, and the orders were executed with the greatest dispatch.

The news of the victory of the British fleet in the Gulf of Mexico was also received with great joy in the Spanish colonies. The news was conveyed to Madrid by a special messenger, and the orders were executed with the greatest dispatch.

The news of the victory of the British fleet in the Gulf of Mexico was also received with great joy in the Dutch colonies. The news was conveyed to Amsterdam by a special messenger, and the orders were executed with the greatest dispatch.

The news of the victory of the British fleet in the Gulf of Mexico was also received with great joy in the Russian colonies. The news was conveyed to St. Petersburg by a special messenger, and the orders were executed with the greatest dispatch.

The news of the victory of the British fleet in the Gulf of Mexico was also received with great joy in the Austrian colonies. The news was conveyed to Vienna by a special messenger, and the orders were executed with the greatest dispatch.

The news of the victory of the British fleet in the Gulf of Mexico was also received with great joy in the Prussian colonies. The news was conveyed to Berlin by a special messenger, and the orders were executed with the greatest dispatch.

The news of the victory of the British fleet in the Gulf of Mexico was also received with great joy in the Italian colonies. The news was conveyed to Rome by a special messenger, and the orders were executed with the greatest dispatch.

The news of the victory of the British fleet in the Gulf of Mexico was also received with great joy in the Portuguese colonies. The news was conveyed to Lisbon by a special messenger, and the orders were executed with the greatest dispatch.

The news of the victory of the British fleet in the Gulf of Mexico was also received with great joy in the Swedish colonies. The news was conveyed to Stockholm by a special messenger, and the orders were executed with the greatest dispatch.

The news of the victory of the British fleet in the Gulf of Mexico was also received with great joy in the Norwegian colonies. The news was conveyed to Christiania by a special messenger, and the orders were executed with the greatest dispatch.

The news of the victory of the British fleet in the Gulf of Mexico was also received with great joy in the Danish colonies. The news was conveyed to Copenhagen by a special messenger, and the orders were executed with the greatest dispatch.

The news of the victory of the British fleet in the Gulf of Mexico was also received with great joy in the Swiss colonies. The news was conveyed to Bern by a special messenger, and the orders were executed with the greatest dispatch.

The news of the victory of the British fleet in the Gulf of Mexico was also received with great joy in the Austro-Hungarian colonies. The news was conveyed to Vienna by a special messenger, and the orders were executed with the greatest dispatch.

The news of the victory of the British fleet in the Gulf of Mexico was also received with great joy in the Hungarian colonies. The news was conveyed to Budapest by a special messenger, and the orders were executed with the greatest dispatch.

The news of the victory of the British fleet in the Gulf of Mexico was also received with great joy in the Bohemian colonies. The news was conveyed to Prague by a special messenger, and the orders were executed with the greatest dispatch.

The news of the victory of the British fleet in the Gulf of Mexico was also received with great joy in the Polish colonies. The news was conveyed to Warsaw by a special messenger, and the orders were executed with the greatest dispatch.

The news of the victory of the British fleet in the Gulf of Mexico was also received with great joy in the Austrian colonies. The news was conveyed to Vienna by a special messenger, and the orders were executed with the greatest dispatch.

The news of the victory of the British fleet in the Gulf of Mexico was also received with great joy in the Hungarian colonies. The news was conveyed to Budapest by a special messenger, and the orders were executed with the greatest dispatch.

The news of the victory of the British fleet in the Gulf of Mexico was also received with great joy in the Bohemian colonies. The news was conveyed to Prague by a special messenger, and the orders were executed with the greatest dispatch.

The news of the victory of the British fleet in the Gulf of Mexico was also received with great joy in the Polish colonies. The news was conveyed to Warsaw by a special messenger, and the orders were executed with the greatest dispatch.

The news of the victory of the British fleet in the Gulf of Mexico was also received with great joy in the Austrian colonies. The news was conveyed to Vienna by a special messenger, and the orders were executed with the greatest dispatch.

The news of the victory of the British fleet in the Gulf of Mexico was also received with great joy in the Hungarian colonies. The news was conveyed to Budapest by a special messenger, and the orders were executed with the greatest dispatch.

The news of the victory of the British fleet in the Gulf of Mexico was also received with great joy in the Bohemian colonies. The news was conveyed to Prague by a special messenger, and the orders were executed with the greatest dispatch.

The news of the victory of the British fleet in the Gulf of Mexico was also received with great joy in the Polish colonies. The news was conveyed to Warsaw by a special messenger, and the orders were executed with the greatest dispatch.

The news of the victory of the British fleet in the Gulf of Mexico was also received with great joy in the Austrian colonies. The news was conveyed to Vienna by a special messenger, and the orders were executed with the greatest dispatch.

The news of the victory of the British fleet in the Gulf of Mexico was also received with great joy in the Hungarian colonies. The news was conveyed to Budapest by a special messenger, and the orders were executed with the greatest dispatch.

The news of the victory of the British fleet in the Gulf of Mexico was also received with great joy in the Bohemian colonies. The news was conveyed to Prague by a special messenger, and the orders were executed with the greatest dispatch.

The news of the victory of the British fleet in the Gulf of Mexico was also received with great joy in the Polish colonies. The news was conveyed to Warsaw by a special messenger, and the orders were executed with the greatest dispatch.

The news of the victory of the British fleet in the Gulf of Mexico was also received with great joy in the Austrian colonies. The news was conveyed to Vienna by a special messenger, and the orders were executed with the greatest dispatch.

The news of the victory of the British fleet in the Gulf of Mexico was also received with great joy in the Hungarian colonies. The news was conveyed to Budapest by a special messenger, and the orders were executed with the greatest dispatch.

The news of the victory of the British fleet in the Gulf of Mexico was also received with great joy in the Bohemian colonies. The news was conveyed to Prague by a special messenger, and the orders were executed with the greatest dispatch.

The news of the victory of the British fleet in the Gulf of Mexico was also received with great joy in the Polish colonies. The news was conveyed to Warsaw by a special messenger, and the orders were executed with the greatest dispatch.
TO BE SOLD.
A house and the premises in Bridge-town.
The lot contains half an acre. On the premises are a carpenter's shop, forge, and convenient outbuildings. The premises contain 3 acres of ground, 3 acres of land and 1 acre of excellent cellar. There is a fine pump of water at the door. For terms apply at the office of the Agent.

For Sale or Rent.
A near and commodious Dwelling house with a fine and orbiting adjacent, situate in Bridge-town, in a good stead for business. For particulars apply to the subscriber on the premises.

SETH BOWEN.

The furnisher has no doubt that he will expect to be proceeded, and he pleads that they null shall not be disfranchised.

STOLEN.
OUT of the house of the subscriber, (situated on the 1st of December evening last) a fine red woolen Purse knit of coarse yarn, containing, viz. French Crown and thirty one Dollars, in a very fine state.

Whoever will Secure them the money said to be stolen from his house shall be rewarded.

LEONE.
October 4th 1876.

W. F. FOR SALE.

TWO pairs of young OXEN. They have been yoked all summer, but have not been put to work. For terms inquire of.

JOHN LAMBERT.

In Upper Anchorway-Creek township, upon the road leading from Road-town to Philadelphia.

Cumberland and Cape-May Stages.

The furnisher respectfully informs the public, that, in expectation of continuance of this fair season from the attention they have hitherto manifested, they have made a new arrangement in their line of Stages. They will, in future, use twice a week, and run with a strict observance of their times. They will start from the lands of Philip Spalding, in Bridge-town on Monday and Thursday mornings, and arrive at Daniel Cooper's ferry on the afternoon of the same day, and set out from the ferry on Monday and Thursday mornings, and run to Bridge-town at the same hours. They will start from Bridge-town on Monday and Thursday mornings, and arrive at Daniel Cooper's ferry on the afternoon of the same day, and set out from the ferry on Monday and Thursday mornings, and run to Bridge-town at the same hours.

The price for passengers from Bridge-town to Cooper's will be $1.00, and for baggage to carried in a bag, at the rate of $1.00 per mile. No trouble or expense will be spared that may be necessary to carry their accustomed to the public in the future.

JOHN HANNAH, EPHRAIM LEAKE.

The public are also informed, that the furnisher has purchased a new carriage and four horses to run from Bridgetown to Camden, which will start from Bridge-town for the Cape every Monday and Thursday mornings, and every Tuesday and Thursday evenings, and return to Bridge-town on the same days.

The price for a passage from Cape-May to Bridgetown is $5.00 per person, and if baggage is brought, it is carried in a bag, at the rate of $1.00 per mile. No trouble or expense will be spared that may be necessary to carry their accustomed to the public in the future.

SAMUEL ROBINSON.

At Private Sale.
One half of the farm in now possession of Ephraim and Enos Seely, and some hay and grass for sale. To be sold by public auction.

The subscribers will be glad to see a good farmer have possession of the premises.

ENOS SEELY.

Aug. 18th 1876.